

To whom it may concern,

My name is Chad Moeller, I played professional baseball for 16 years and since retiring I have coached young baseball players between instruction and on my teams since 2013. I was honored to have Jake Horowitz ask me to write a letter for him. I have coached Jake and been a mentor to him since he was 10 years old. I have watched him develop and continue to mature as a player, but most importantly as a young man. He has become a natural leader to his teammates and continues to show his work ethic in everything he does both on and off the field. He has always been a person of great character and trustworthy. His skills on the field have continued to improve with leaps and bounds. He has become my best defensive outfielder and a fixture in the top half of the order with a great eye at the plate. Jake will be successful without a doubt in anything he does.

I am happy to answer any questions you may have regarding Jake Horowitz.

Sincerely,
